• WHAT IS THE SUMMER SCHOOL IN RELIGIONS AND PEACEAFUL COEXISTENCE?

The Summer school in Religions and Peaceful Coexistence is part of the teaching activities of the "King Hamad" Chair for interreligious dialogue and e peaceful coexistence, established at Sapienza University in 2018. The Summer School intensive programme revolves around the historical, cultural, and social dynamics of religions, understood in a perspective of dialogue and peacebuilding and with a cross-historical approach. Its main aim is to provide analytical instruments, methods, and skills in order to critically study the interactions between religions from the point of view of peaceful coexistence. Taking advantage of the rich history and culture of Rome, our Summer School enables our students to take part in a variety of activities ranging from specific academic lectures to interactive workshops and field trips to relevant spots of the Eternal City.

• LECTURES

40% of our Summer School is based on lectures held by well-respected scholars and researchers, both from Sapienza University and international institutions. Our lecturers put their expertise at the service of the students, enriching their Summer School experience with a solid academic content, in an interdisciplinary, cross-cultural and cross-historical perspective.

• EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING AND FIELD TRIPS

60% of our Summer School activities is interactive and experiential. Our students are trained to develop critical and analytical skills, and they are constantly stimulated to be active part in the learning process. In order to achieve what we believe to be one of the main goals of a proper academic education – namely active involvement and critical thinking – we organise workshops and walking tours across the city. Our students are encouraged to learn how to manage teamwork and group discussions, and how to read both the cultural heritage and the current "religionscape" of the surrounding environment. The Interactive workshops revolve around themes such as tolerance, hate speech, superdiversity, and others, while our Ateliers of research enable our students to glance at the current trends of religion-related academic research. Besides such classroom activities, our walking tours aim to show the layered and multifaceted presence of religions in Rome, with visits to Christian, Islamic and Jewish landmarks.
